OPINION AND ORDER GRANTING MOTION FOR CONTINUANCE

On October 15, 2015 Defendant orally moved for a continuance of the final pretrial conference and jury selection and trial because the Defendant and counsel had not yet had adequate time to review the discovery and the Defendant had not had adequate time to consider whether he wished to have a trial or plead guilty; further the Defendant had not had the thirty days from arraignment to which he was entitled pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(c)(2). The United States was unopposed to the motion.

Under the Speedy Trial Act, a district court may grant a continuance and exclude the resulting delay from the time in which a trial must commence if it makes on-the-record findings that the ends of justice served by granting the continuance outweigh the public's and defendant's interests in a speedy trial. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7).

Having considered the Defendant's motion, the Court finds that the failure to grant a continuance in this case would deny counsel for the defendant the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence.

Accordingly, the Court finds that the ends of justice are served by granting a continuance in this case and outweigh the best interests of the public and Defendant in a speedy trial.

The Court GRANTS the Defendant's motion and CONTINUES the final pretrial conference until November 12, 2015, at 9:00 a.m., before undersigned and schedules the jury selection and trial for November 23, 2015, at 9:00 a.m. before Hon. John D. Rainey.

ORDERED this 16th day of October, 2015.
